

Colorado ARES 2M SSB Net
Monday at 7:00 PM local time
144.220 MHz USB
May 26, 2013

Calling the Colorado 2 Meter SSB Amateur Radio Emergency Service net. Calling the Colorado 2 Meter SSB ARES net. This is _____, _____ in _____, net control for this evening. This net meets every Monday night at 7:00 PM local time on this frequency, 144.220 MHz USB.

The purpose of this net is to promote interest in Amateur Radio Emergency Service and prepare to provide emergency communication in the event of a natural disaster or loss or overloading of normal communications channels for any reason. This is done in association with local law enforcement authorities and Offices of Emergency Management.

No club or organizational affiliation is required to participate in ARES, however ARES registration is strongly encouraged of all amateur stations. Please contact your ARES District Emergency Coordinator for information and registration details.

This is a directed net. When checking in list your call, name, and location. This is _____, net control for the Colorado 2 Meter SSB ARES net.

Stations with call suffixes Alpha through Juliet, check in now.

Stations Kilo through Romeo?

Stations Sierra through Zulu?

Stations Alpha through Zulu?

Handle net business as appropriate.

Call each station which checked in and ask for their comments.

Obtain information for registration form for first-time check-ins.

Ask for additional business or check-ins.

Moderate a round table discussion as long as it seems appropriate.

The Rocky Mountain VHF+ net is at 8:00 PM on this same frequency.

This is _____, _____ in _____ closing the Colorado 2 Meter SSB ARES net at (LOCAL TIME). Thank you for your participation and please check in again next week at 7PM local time. _____ clear.

Please submit net reports to John Higgins N6VTS@arrl.net: Checkins, Time on the air